A Book Launch + Conversation
THEY CAN’T REPRESENT US!
Reinventing Democracy from Greece to Occupy
Tuesday, September 16th | 4:30–6:30PM | Room 5109

Marina Sitrin (Visiting Scholar, Center for Place Culture, and Politics, CUNY Graduate Center) and Dario Azzellini (Institute for Sociology, Johannes Kepler University, Austria) present their new book. Reception to follow.

*Co-sponsored by the Center for Place Culture and Politics.

A Public Talk
NATIONALISM, INTERNATIONALISM AND COSMOPOLITANISM
Some Observations from Modern Indian History
Thursday, October 2nd | 4:30–6:30PM | Room C204/C205

With a presentation by Partha Chatterjee (Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Calcutta and Anthropology, Columbia University) and comments from Ayça Çubukçu (London School of Economics and Political Science). Reception to follow.

A Conversation
SHADOWS OF UNIVERSALISM, OTHER COSMOPOLITANISMS
Historicizing Human Rights
Tuesday, October 7th | 4:30–6:30PM | Room 5307

With presentations by Samuel Moyn (Harvard Law School) and Lydia Liu (Comparative Literature and East Asian Languages, Columbia University) and comments by Manu Bhagavan (History, CUNY Graduate Center and Hunter College).

November

A Public Seminar
PLEBEIAN CITIZENSHIP AND THE ETHICO-POLITICAL PRACTICES OF THE UNGOVERNED
Buenos Aires’s La Salada and Emergent Forms of Democratic Life
Tuesday, November 4th | 10:30am–12:30pm | Room 5307

Carlos Forment (Sociology, The New School) will present his work to the Globalization Committee seminar with comments by Kaysha Corinealdi (Columbia University).

A Symposium
CONFRONTING RACIAL CAPITALISM
The Black Radical Tradition and the Cultures of Liberation
Thursday, November 20 and Friday November 21
Time TBD | Room TBD

*Co-sponsored with the Center for Place Culture and Politics.

A Public Talk
THE NEW POLITICS OF EXTRACTION AND EXPRESSIVENESS IN SOUTH AFRICAN PUBLIC CULTURE
Tuesday, December 9th | 4:30–6:30PM | Room 5307

With a presentation by Sarah Nuttall (Wits Institute for Social and Economic Research, University of Witswatersrand, South Africa).